

A Way Out is recruiting a specialist Women's Criminal Justice Service Manager.

Criminal Justice Service Manager – full time, 35 hrs pw, £32,000

We are seeking to recruit an experienced Criminal Justice Service Manager who will oversee the delivery of the funded contract amongst other commissioned services, maintain and develop strategic and local partnerships, and provide line management support to staff providing frontline delivery.

Women become involved in the Criminal Justice System for a complex range of reasons. In our gender specific services we provide holistic support to women by women, to overcome challenges and address needs, enabling them to successfully move-on from services and live fulfilling, crime free flourishing lives. Our specialist Women's Criminal Justice team will provide inclusive and supportive interventions and are driven to achieve the best for local communities. We will support women to build upon their strengths and work through any barriers that are preventing them from progressing and realising their potential. The Criminal Justice Service Manager will be able to bring knowledge of the Criminal Justice system and develop the service design and delivery.

The Criminal Justice Service Manager will manage the Criminal justice Contract ensuring that the Service's key functions are performing to a high standard and meeting all contract performance metrics. The role will be supported to take a lead in promoting, developing and integrating the Services so that they are effectively able to meet the needs of participants involved in the criminal justice system. A key element of this work will be supporting commissioners and stakeholders to monitor and manage performance and quality, and designing and developing the service provision in coproduction with the women accessing support.

As a motivational manager, it will be important to maintain the team ethos and build a dynamic culture of reflective practice and development. You will manage all aspects of team performance and development.

At A Way Out we value a diverse workforce and are keen to recruit people of all ages and from all backgrounds, abilities and ethnicities.
