Ethos of AWO	A Way Out is a charity with a difference. We are an outreach and prevention charity working with the most disadvantaged and excluded women, families and young people. We engage, empower, equip and enable to prevent further harm, exploitation and life limiting choices and behaviours. A Way Out is not a “three strikes and you are out” charity, but one that works patiently and tirelessly with love, hope and freedom at the core, which motivates us to “go the extra mile”. A Way Out believes in meeting people where they are, building hope and trust by empowering choices.
Job Summary	As an Adult Project Worker at A Way Out, you will be an integral part of our Horizon adult service team, working collaboratively to achieve defined project outcomes, with a particular focus on accommodation. Your role will involve providing essential support to women who have experienced abuse, harm, or exploitation, focusing on their holistic well-being and facilitating their journey towards empowerment and recovery. You will be responsible for conducting initial assessments, developing interventions, case management, outreach activities, performance monitoring and ensuring the safety and well-being of service users. You will promote a harm reduction approach which respects individual choices, whilst assessing risk, offering safety planning and support. Additionally, you will actively engage with local organisations and contribute to multi-agency support efforts. It is an Occupational Requirement that applications for this post are open to women only, as permitted under Schedule 9, Part 1, or the Equality Act 2010. Enhanced DBS checks will be required.
